Imperial's interest in Foothills amounted to 181,800 shares, representing 30.8 per cent of the outstanding stock. Sale of Foothills carries with it the controlling interest in Southwest Petroleum, in which Foothills owns 470,500 shares or 62.3 per cent of the issued stock.

77 PER CENT OF STOCK

Imperial's interest in Lovers was 770,000 shares, representing 71 per cent of the issued stock of that company.

In making the announcement, Imperial said it has become apparent that it will be increasingly difficult to follow competitive practices between Imperial and these companies.

In addition, Imperial stated, realization on these assets will assist the company in expanding its exploration and development program in Western Canada.

OVER $4,000,000
The sum of money involved was not stated. However, today's price of Foothills on the Toronto Stock Exchange was $23.75 and, unchanged on the day.

All companies involved are largely interested in Alberta oil fields.

Recognition Of Red China Forecast In House Speech

By ROBERT W. REPOD

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(RUP)—Canada is paying the way for formal recognition of the Communist government of China, External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson told parliament today.

Recognition, he said, would occur when a government was established, was accepted by the Chinese and demonstrated it was able to carry out international functions.

He added, "Recognition does not imply or signify moral approval. It is simply an acknowledgment of a state of affairs that exists."

"We would be wanting in decency, however, if we did not recognize the Chinese Nationalist government stood as our ally in the last world war against totalitarianism."

It was learned the opposition would demand that T. C. Davis, Canadian ambassador to China, be charged for questioning on China.

Pearson said Canada did not challenge the right of the United States in the Newfoundland defense base obtained from the United Kingdom.

However, there was concern over the Dominion's jurisdiction over military activities carried out in the area.

SHE IS OUT ON BAIL

Too-Amorous Husband Has Wifey Home Again

By HENRY MINARD
UP Correspondent

BREMONT, Wash., Nov. 16.—(UP)—Mrs. Margaret Platt, 31, caught up on "clashes, darts" and "lunch" today, finally convinced her husband he was not a murderer. She was released on bail.

"He's a great guy," she said today, as she stepped her husband to watch him putting over his motorcycle in the back yard.

Last night was her first at home since she was jailed two weeks ago after admitting slugging her husband's death. Her complaint then was that Wilford was too amorous.

Today, after 14 nights in jail, the tiny, brown-eyed young mother of two children was awed by her 34-year-old husband's love.

"I wonder how many other husbands would have stuck by their wives like he did by me," she said.

Wilford forgave his wife when he learned of her plot to kill him and begged deputies to let him stay home in jail with her.

Finally, her attempted murder charge was reduced to a felony count and he was let out from $7,500 to $10,000. Wilford raised the money in a matter of hours. He brought her home to their simple five-room home here yesterday where "we sure have needed you."

"The first thing we did when we got home," beamed Wilford, "was to have a corker! Good beefsteak and eggs, pancakes."

Mrs. Platt insisted on a quiet evening at home last night.

"Oh, we've been invited over by the neighbors," Wilford asked her to go to a movie, but I told him I would just stay home the first night."

Regarding her earlier complaint about Wilford, she said last night, "I'll never ever complain again. He's wonderful!"

Equalized Rates Urged on Railways

Alberta and Manitoba Ask West Charges Be In Line With East

By John Leblanc

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Alberta and Manitoba governments have recommended to the Royal Commission on Transportation that freight rates should be equalized as far as practicable.

Manitoba declared yesterday it should be a "fundamental principle" of the rail structure that in general charges for the same traffic over the same distance should be equal.

However, the government conceded there should be exceptions to the rule where required because of costs, competition, the needs of national development or "other circumstances."

The Alberta government said equalization of rates as between different regions of the Dominion should be written into legislation. The rate-regulating board of transport commissioners should be instructed to "maintain a relationship of equality in the general level of rates within and between all regions."

HIGHWAY TO THE EAST
The west has contended for some years that its freight-rate level is considerably higher than in the east, and the Manitoba and Alberta administrations are aimed at rectifying this condition.

The board of transport commissioners is engaged in a cabinet-ordered study of the freight rate structure with a view to equalization measures.

Albert's brief was to be discussed in later hearings before the commission.

Roumaging its submissions today, the federal treasury minister should be urged to stop the west "subsidizing" the east in rail freight rates.

Dedaring the west is paying more than its share, the prairie province said that if any further rate increases are required, they should not be applied to an area such as the west where profits on rail operations were being scarce.

Chinese Can Veto Their UN Dismissal

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Nov. 16.—(UPI)—Challenges by the Chinese Communist government of the Nationalist delegation's legal right to represent China threatened today to turn off another major battle between Russia and the west in the United Nations.

Observers expected Russia, torn of a bitter attack by the Chinese Nationalists for its help to the Communists, would back the Nationalist delegation here to the limit.

Dr. Tingfu F. Tsiang, chief of the Nationalist delegation here, indicated that the Changching government would battle to the end to save its UN seat.

"Up to the present moment," Tsiang told reporters, "not a single official of that bogus regime has been elected. Not a single law, or constitutional provision has had the approval of the Chinese people. The Chinese Communist party has been acting as a puppet of the Soviet Union. It remains a band of outlaws."

There was at stake then claims of rival governments to represent the Chinese people. Under the UN charter, China was recognized in 1945 in the Nationalist government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek as given the veto power as one of the five permanent members of the Security Council.

The question arose whether the veto power could be transferred from the Nationalist government to the Communists.

But Russia was expected to raise the issue in the committee on credentials, charging that the Nationalist government no longer represented the Chinese people.

Child Hacked, Lashed, Choked By Pervert

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 16.—(UPI)—Search for an elderly baker suspected of the mutilation slaying of chubby Linda Joyce Gifford, 6, spread to Mexico today as enraged citizens joined hundreds of officers hunting the fugitive.

The pretty, brown-haired girl, body was found yesterday hacked and examined into a heap of old bottles and tin cans in the yard of the suspect, 6-year-old Fred Stroble. She had been caught alone dusk Monday when she failed to return home from play.

This was the ninth slaying of a child by a sex pervert in California since 1934.

An autopsy report showed she died of strangulation soon after her attacker knifed a girl-colored necktie around her throat.

But, smoking fumes from a long-handled axe were fatal for her. Her spinal cord was hacked in two. Three times her 66-pound body was jabbed with an ice pick, and her chest showed purple lacerations.

There was no evidence she had been raped.

Robbie, already a fugitive on one charge, mutilation charge, immediately became the No. 1 and only suspect.

Are These a Menace on City Streets? Police Intend to Find Out!

CITY POLICE have stepped up check of decrepit motor vehicles which may be hazard on Edmonton streets. These jalopies were photographed in city this week. Two operators whose cars failed to comply with regulation standards of safety have been issued with summonses and instructed to have their vehicles put in shape.

THIS CAR was photographed in Cloverdale district. Such old crocks can be licensed in Alberta without undergoing check of brakes, lights, horn, rear vision mirror. Alberta Motor Association officials feel compulsory tests of all vehicles would be big factor in eliminating many highway accidents. Sign reads "Death is so permanent."

THIS 22-YEAR-OLD truck was photographed just off Jasper avenue, two blocks from Bulletin office. Police constable checked it, said he wouldn't drive it across road.

Police Launch Drive Against Ill-Equipped Motor Vehicles

By John McLean
Bulletin Staff Reporter

City police are cracking down on motorists operating decrepit jalopies on Edmonton streets.

Chief Constable Reg Jennings has instructed police officers to step up their check of vehicles, which through lack of necessary equipment, are in violation of the Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act.

Checks yesterday resulted in two motor vehicle operators being issued with summonses.

An ancient truck, driving the city streets, was found to be a highway hazard in that its lights were poor, there was no red lens in the tail light, the brakes were only 20 per cent efficient and there was no rear view mirror.

Chief Jennings said today he had instructed police officers to conduct a more concentrated check of old cars and trucks.

Alberta's Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act does not provide for compulsory checks of motor vehicles.

Any jalopy may be licensed.

ISSUE SUMMONS

City police are empowered to summon an operator whose car or truck does not meet safety standards.

But, although a clause in the motor vehicle act provides for the banning of unsafe automobiles from the highways forever, officials say they can't recall such action ever being taken.

An official of the Alberta Motor Association said today his organization has long been in favor of compulsory checks of all vehicles before the issuance of licenses.

S. D. Anderson, office manager of AMA here, said "most of our directors agree on the value of road safety tests."

He pointed to British Columbia where all vehicles are tested for brakes, lights and other equipment before they are allowed on the roads.

"Such tests would be an important factor in eliminating many highway accidents," he said.

POLICE HAMPERED

In Alberta police are hampered in that such checks are not required.

"Traffic officers here say "about 10 per cent of cars are 'chained up' every month for poor brakes."

"It's pretty hard to spot such vehicles," one officer said.

Mr. Anderson though many accidents were caused by "slow jalopies" which caused other cars to pile up behind them.

"Every car tries to drive around these crawling old crates," he said.

"Sometimes they make it, other times they become involved in an accident."

He thought, too, that old cars should be pulled off the road for good if condemned by qualified mechanics.

Under the vehicle and highway traffic act automobiles and trucks must be equipped with:

1. Two license number plates.

2. Two headlamps and a tail lamp, in good condition.

3. Adequate brakes.

4. Horn.

5. Muffler.

6. Rear vision mirror.

Routine tests of vehicles by city police have shown many cars and trucks to be operating regularly without such equipment.

Chief Jennings said he was amazed to learn there were so many ill-equipped vehicles operating in Edmonton.

In endorsing a more extensive check of vehicles, officials of the Edmonton Safety Council pointed out that 19 people have met death as a result of traffic accidents on city streets so far this year. During 1948, only seven were killed on Edmonton streets.

PULP MILL ALMOST WENT TO CALGARY

Edmonton's projected $14 million pulp and paper mill was slated for Calgary—until our industrial commissioner climbed into the act.

It is learned recently that, despite the fact that engineers had decided Calgary was the logical spot for R. O. Sweeney's mill, the logical spot for R. O. Sweeney to locate his proposed mill, Graham W. Curtis swung the deal to Edmonton.

Arguments reportedly used by Mr. Curtis to have the mill's location changed were Edmonton's proximity to pulp wood supplies, and particularly the availability of an assured supply of low-cost natural gas for the mill's operation.

Long Trail Of Crime Ends In Jail Sentence

Two youth, one 17 years old, will serve two years in Prince Albert penitentiary for breaking and entering a city store. Also admitted to committing six other thefts this month.

They are Henry Hoffe, 20, and William Evans, 17, no fixed addresses, sentenced by Magistrate A. I. Millar this morning in city court.

Six other charges to which the juvenile pair pleaded guilty, were: Stealing a truck from the city, 18-month sentence; stealing a CNR handcar near Marvella, 18 months; stealing a car, 18 months; breaking and entering a farm house, two years; breaking, entering two cars, three months on each offense.

These sentences will run concurrently with the two-year terms given the youths.

Magistrate Millar found them guilty of breaking and entering the Western Exchange at 1024-96 street on November 7.

RCMP constable J. McAllister told court how police followed a trail of crime in tracking down the youths.

First they stole a truck from Edmonton, he said, and headed toward Marvella. The truck broke down and they stole a CNR handcar from a track siding.

Failing to start the handcar they walked into a farmer's home nearby and stole clothing and two suitcases.

TO SCOTLAND

Jack P. Healy, supervisor of athletics for the city recreation commission, is going home for the first time in 22 years.

He leaves Nov. 26 to fly to his home in Dundee, Scotland for a four week visit. Mr. Healy returned to Edmonton on January 6.

During his absence, Dimitri Gioshkov will carry on his duties.

SCOUTING TRIP

To carry operations of Alberta Scouts the nation on the coast to coast program, Town Meeting in Canada, moderator of the program, Arthur R. Heaps and Tour Manager, Keith Cutler are presently scouting Edmonton prospects for a broad area. The pair are making their headquarters at radio station CBUA, which carried the broadcast of unreserved comment on contentions national leaders each Sunday at 7 p.m.

ON PAPER TALK

Constituency conference, preliminary to the provincial convention in Calgary next week, took Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs, to Rocky Mountain House today. Mr. Hooke, representative for the district, will address party members at the convention there.

City May Not Qualify For Government Grant

It is doubtful that Edmonton will qualify for any part of the federal government's proposed $5,000,000 grants to municipalities in lieu of taxes, Mayor Ed Parsons said today.

The city has received no official word from Ottawa on the question, and civic officials have not gone closely into it, but Mayor Parsons says it appears that the reported four per cent minimum assessment stipulation will cut Edmonton off from any benefit.

"Majority of federal government offices here are on a rental basis, which leaves only the main and South Side post offices, the Cider grain elevator, and a few smaller buildings involved in consideration," he said.

"These will not total enough assessment to meet the minimum, even when the new federal building is completed."

It is expected the city's total assessment will be boosted with the revision now under way, which will add to the improbability of qualifying.

The whole matter will likely be laid before Monday night's adjourned meeting of city council, said the mayor.

Asked whether someone from Edmonton might be going to the special executive meeting of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities called by Mayor Garnet Coulter of Winnipeg, Mayor Parsons said the city will not be represented.

"But we are certainly keeping in touch with the federation."

District Man Heads Apiarist

An antiarist from Ron Accord district, Peter Kowalski, has been elected president of the Alberta Beekeepers Association.

He was elected at the close of the association's two-day convention in Edmonton yesterday and succeeds H. T. Philpott of Calgary.

The new vice-president is W. M. Scott of Calgary and W. G. Lamal have been returned as secretary-treasurer.

The convention ended by asking the dominion government to set a floor price of 15 cents a pound on honey.

Mother Gives Children Lessons In First Aid

"Prompt attention to small cuts and bruises is a vital mother decision," Mrs. I. J. McAllister said today.

She said that she and her husband have been able to keep their children safe and sound since they began to use the first aid kit.

Yon, many generations of mothers have been relying on the first aid kit to keep their children safe and sound.

HER FATHER ANNOYED TOO

Baby Sitter Beaten Up By Pugnacious Charge

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Mercedes Wells will have to get another sister next time she wants someone to stay with mother's precious, her nine-year-old son, Eric.

That's because her regular sister, Donna Glancoli, 16, doesn't want the job any longer. And neither does her father, Charles Glancoli.

Mrs. Wells complained to police that Eric was misbehaved when she went out Sunday night. She said she came back and found her son smeared with blood and with a tooth missing.

She said Eric told her Donna had left him alone and that her father showed a cake of soap in his mouth, breaking a tooth.

However, Donna had a different story to tell officer Kenneth Dunham. His report said:

"Eric looked her out of the house, threw her schoolbooks out of an upstairs window, turned the lights out, and kicked Donna in the shins when she tried to telephone for help."

In desperation, Donna took Eric to her own home. Her father had to take him back.

"When they arrived at the house, Eric refused to open the door. Mr. Glancoli went in through the garage door. Eric then turned the lights off."

When Glancoli tried to get Eric to bed, the boy "refused to put on his pajamas, three blocks and toys stomped on the floor."

"Glancoli threatened a cold shower." As this did no good, he washed Eric's mouth out with soap. The boy finally went to sleep about 10:30 p.m.

Officer Dunham interviewed Eric. The boy admitted the loutish got knocked down the previous afternoon in a fist fight with another boy.

"I am of the opinion Eric deliberately pulled out the tooth to make it bleed," Dunham said.

"Also, Eric was not misbehaved in any way but if anyone was misbehaved, it was Donna and her father."

Tow as Assistant General Managers, and of James Lang as Chief Estates Manager, are also announced. The appointment of A. Roy Courtenay as an Assistant General Manager was announced last year.

Federal Grants Thorny Problem

Payments In Lieu Of Taxes May Take Years To Perfect

By Harold Morrison

OTTAWA, Nov. 16.—(CP)—A jungle of problems appear to be besetting the government's path as it prepares to initiate the much-heralded payments-in-lieu-of-taxation plan.

So entangled are some of them that a government official says they may take "years" to eliminate.

"This cannot be helped," he adds. "The government stepped into the permanent picture now. It had nothing to go on."

Even if it takes a few "years" to clarify the payments scheme, this was only a small period considering that the plan possibly would run for 100 years.

HIRE TAX EXPERTS

Professional municipal tax experts will be employed by the finance department to bolster a proposed assessment unit which will weigh the problems.

They run from questions of what constitutes assessable "federal property" to what is "new property" for which tapering off grants over a period of years will be provided.

The official indicates that the government already has in mind the possibility of introducing a four-percentage assessment unit. Names will not be announced until parliament approves special estimates to be introduced by Finance Minister Abbott this session.

"Considering the heavy task in front of it, the unit will have to be large, but it will not be over-extended with staff," the official says. Members will move about the country frequently, consulting with municipalities, answering appeals for assessment increases and making final decisions on what constitutes "federal property."

DECISION FINAL

The final decisions will be final. The municipalities will have no appeal.

Meanwhile, steps have been taken to bring the scheme into operation next Jan. 1, with some part of the payments to go out shortly afterwards. Eventually about 100 municipalities will get them, averaging an annual payment of $100,000.

One of the most complicated problems is grants on "new property." This issue still is not completely settled. Generally, it is believed the "new property" payments will come into effect next January when the overall scheme starts.

But it is indicated that although the plan is not effective until next January, municipalities would have a right to protest non-payment where the government makes purchases of property during the latter part of 1950.

ANOTHER PROBLEM

"We'll just hope the government doesn't make any property purchases within the next few weeks," says an official.

A "fair and equitable" assessment brings up another problem. Will the government agree to federal property assessments as estimated by the municipalities? Will the federal assessors interfere with

Food Imports Still Required By Britain

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—(CP)—Eric Hobson, secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society of Britain, said yesterday Canadian farmers need not fear Britain's increased production of farm products will seriously affect imports from Canada. "We need the food Canada produces," Mr. Hobson said yesterday in an interview. "Despite our intensive production campaign we can never produce all we need—nothing like it."

Mr. Hobson, here to visit the Royal Winter Fair which opened yesterday, said one of the purposes of his visit is to induce Canadian farmers to visit agricultural fairs in Britain.

The bagpipes were known in Ireland possibly as early as the fifth century.

HEAVY DRUG PENALTIES
"On your own evidence, I do not see how you can claim that you are a law-abiding citizen," Chief Justice W. H. Howson told Chapman.

Chapman is the fourth drug addict recently convicted here in supreme court. The previous three were sentenced to five years, last week Marvin Connors and Richard Brown were each sentenced to five years in prison for possession of drugs.

Aerial Survey Cost To Exceed Million

Aerial photographing of Alberta which started this fall will cost the province about $1,000,000.

Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and forests, said today that the photographic survey company Limited of Toronto for the three-year survey project was signed recently.

Under the terms of the contract, the company will photograph the entire province of Alberta, an area of about 660,000 square miles, at a cost of $1.25 per square mile.

In addition, all forested areas within the province, other than the far north, is to be photographed. Of this is an area of about 160,000 square miles.

THREE YEAR PROJECT
Photographs will be useful to the department of agriculture, and to the department of forestry, and to the department of geology.

Complete project will require two or three years, but by the end of March 1950, photographs of 40,000 square miles will be available.

Produce more than 30 per cent of cotton grown in the United States of India.

"IT'S PRETTY WONDERFUL," says Alene Campbell, of 5131-88 avenue. She and her mother, Mrs. Lila Campbell, were hauled out of their home Oct. 26, all their belongings a total loss.

DRUNK DRIVER BARRED FROM DRIVING AGAIN

The risk of becoming a drunk driver is not a new one, but it is a risk that is becoming more and more common. The police have been warning drivers for some time that they should not drink and drive, but it seems that some people are still not listening.

Mrs. Lila Campbell and her daughter Alene Campbell were hauled out of their home Oct. 26, all their belongings a total loss.

But the home they now occupy was built largely by contributions of material and labor from their friends in the district.

Faced with a $4,000 loss which completely wiped out their home, the family is now in a difficult position.

Grass Roots Are Getting Stronger

By Iben Libelli
Deputy News Editor

CALGARY, Nov. 16. What is often known as farmers' parliament—convention of the Alberta Association of Farmers and Flocks—is closed here today and it will appear the grass roots strong and growing stronger.

The Ed Johnson of Well-known painted art, administration of agricultural trust today is big business and responsibility that roads have been created by example.

He is responsible for maintenance—not the actual work to see it is done of 50 miles of gravelled road in division alone. That mileage, without adding the miles graded dirt route, would be sufficient to service a small city.

The travelled mileage was in his division, too, approximately since about 1932; was an indication of tremendous improvements in the country.
